On September 21st, 1926. Gave Mr. Pfeiffer reports of my previous investigation and assigned operative to shadow Hamborzsky while I made an investigation concerning him and also received the following information. That he is connected with the Old Faith Mission Church and is expected to give a talk there on the evening of the 22nd. That the real head of the church is a Mr. Pcurin whose place is on Madison Avenue and 81st Street. My informant further advises me that he does not believe Mr. Hamborzsky is a Reverend, and he is working on a plan wherein a few days he may be able to secure more definite information.

I visited the neighborhood of 245 East 80th Street about 2:30 or 3:00 P.M., and noticed a man about 5 ft. 8 or 9 in., about 50 years of age, 175 lbs. medium built, wearing dark rim glasses and a sort of a hump on his nose, with dark hair mixed with gray, wearing a bow tie and a small dark mustache talking to a man of about the same age, whose built was much heavier and shorter, in stature. It appears to me that the first named individual resembles the newspaper photograph I have of Hamborzsky. I continued to keep this man under surveillance for a short period of time then left to interview a personal acquaintance for the purpose of locating Mr. Romeyn P. Benjamin. After securing the said information I again returned to 48 West 10th Street and located Mr. Benjamin and interviewed him, and received the following information: That he remembers the affair given by the U.S. Marine Million Dollar Circus and that the thing was promoted by <sup>Blumenfeld</sup> North Bloomfield of the Fair Booking Assn. Inc., who had their office in the Strand Building. Also that Mr. Hassam or Hassid was the man in charge of booking the concessionaires. He cannot remember the name of the man who had charge of the publicity end. He has a very distinct recollection of Mrs. Jane Gibson appearing there with her mule and it is his belief that she also had a pig, but he is not so sure of the pig end of it. Also that she was dressed in mourning, and she charged more than any of the others at the show. That on one occasion while there a platform collapsed where she was showing herself and Mr. Benjamin does not remember if there were
